

Kerr moves from TDG to EWS to be commercial director

■ David Kerr has become commercial director of EWS. Kerr joined from TDG where he was sales and marketing director for European Chemicals.

■ David Bachelor (on right of picture) has taken overall responsibility for Hartshorne Group's Volvo Truck and Bus new and used vehicle sales operation. Bachelor, Hartshorne managing director, keeps aftermarket responsibilities.

Sales director Brian Bachelor

(on left of picture) becomes managing director of Hartshorne Van Services, its VW business.

■ Wincanton has appointed Sándor Udvarvölgyi as managing director of Hungary.

Udvarvölgyi started his logistics career at Procter & Gamble in 1995, and has worked for Avon Cosmetics Hungary and for Tesco.

■ TNT Sameday's divisional

general manager David Williamson has been made a Fellow of the Institute of Couriers.

■ ByBox, which specialises in "in-night" deliveries, has appointed Mark Garritt managing director of its Field Support division. He was commercial director and has formerly worked with Document Interlink, Insurance Courier Services and Hays DX.