

The tandem team from Bybox.

● STUART Millar, chief executive of city firm ByBox, was so impressed by his staff tackling a sponsored tandem cycle race – he has made it an annual event.

Three teams, totalling 30 people, and headed up by Stuart with colleagues Dan Turner and Mark Garritt, completed the 560-mile race from Milton Keynes to Coventry raising a total of £5,000 for the NSPCC.

Sponsor Coca-Cola provided drinks and coolers for the thirsty pedallers.

A keen cyclist himself, Stuart said they had a lot of fun practising for the event.

“One of the biggest hurdles is getting people to pedal in unison, however once they have got the knack, it is plain sailing,” he